

THE BROKEN KITE

Storytelling Performance Script • Category: Friendship & Perseverance

[Opening – Smile, stand confidently]

Assalamu'alaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh.

Good morning, everyone!

My name is _____.

Today, I would like to tell you a story about friendship.

The title of my story is “The Broken Kite.”

[Smile and pause]

Once upon a time, there were two best friends named Arman and Bima.

They loved playing together after school.

One sunny afternoon, Arman brought his new kite to the field.

[Show excitement]

“Wow! Look at my new kite!”

The kite was beautiful.

It was blue, yellow, and red.

Arman was very excited.

[Pretend to fly a kite]

He ran across the field.

The kite flew higher and higher.

But suddenly...

[Pause and look surprised]

CRACK!

The kite hit a tree.

The string broke, and the kite fell to the ground.

[Sad expression]

“Oh no! My kite!”

Arman picked it up.

The kite was broken.

He felt very sad.

[Look down]

Bima came closer.

“Don’t be sad, Arman. We can fix it together.”

Arman looked at Bima.

“Really?”

[Smile]

“Yes! Let’s try.”

They went home and looked for some paper, glue, and sticks.

They worked together. Arman held the kite. Bima fixed the broken part.

It was not easy. Sometimes the paper came off. Sometimes the stick fell down.

But they did not give up.

[Shake head confidently]

Finally, the kite was ready.

They went back to the field. Arman held the kite. Bima held the string.

[Excited expression]

“Ready?”

“Ready!”

[Pretend to run]

They ran together.

And the kite flew again!

[Look up and smile]

Arman was very happy.

“Thank you, Bima!”

Bima smiled.

“That’s what friends are for.”

[Hand on heart]

Arman learned that day that a true friend does not only stay with us when everything is easy.

A true friend stays with us when things go wrong.

[Look at audience]

So, my dear friends, when your friend has a problem, don’t laugh at them. Help them. Support them. And never give up on them. Because...

A true friend helps you fly again.

[Big smile]

That’s the end of my story.

Thank you for listening!

Wassalamu’alaikum warahmatullahi wabarakatuh.
